

A WHOLE NEW WAY TO RECEIVE YOUR CHILD SUPPORT

You can now choose to receive your support payments in one of three ways – Direct Deposit, Florida Debit MasterCard® card, or by paper checks. The payment method you select will be in effect for all of your cases that are enforced by the Department of Revenue.

What is Direct Deposit? What is the Florida Debit MasterCard®?

Direct Deposit – As the custodial parent, you authorize the Department of Revenue Child Support Enforcement Program to deposit your support payments directly into your bank account (checking or savings).

Florida Debit MasterCard® – The Florida Debit MasterCard® is designed for the custodial parent who does not have a bank account. But this option is available to all custodial parents whether you have a bank account or not. As the custodial parent, you authorize the Department of Revenue Child Support Enforcement Program to post your support payments to your Florida Debit MasterCard® with which you can withdraw cash and make purchases against the amount on your card.
